NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH

Thrilling Adventure of Four Young Ladies From Buffalo Run.

CAUSED BY RUNAWAY HORSES

A Frightened Team Crashes Into a Buggy in Which are Three Girls. One Horse Thrown Over a High Fence.

On Thursday night an accident occurred at Buffalo Run which might have resulted in the death of four young girls. As it was they were injured pretty badly, and one of them is still under the care of a physician. Misses Sadie Annie and Hattie Hasting, daughters of George Hastings who lives on Buffalo Run, were attending a Bible less meeting and started for home in a buggy about half past nine o'clock in the evening. Miss Cook who is employed in the family of Wm. Tressler had also been attending the class meeting and although told not to, she went out and unhitched Mr. Tressler's two-horse team and tried to turn the wagon around. The horses became frightened at something and started to run down the road at a terrible rate. They ran into the buggy occupied by the Misses Hasting and upset the buggy throwing the girls out in the road, but fortunately away from the horses. The horse that was being driven by the Hastings girls was thrown clear over a fence into a field by the collision. The Tressler team never stopped in its wild rampage and galloped madly down the road. The wagon was upset and completely demolished, and Miss Cook badly injured. She had to be driven home and is still in bed. The horses were found the next morning in a piece of woods about two miles away. The girls are pretty bad ly bruised but are recovering as well as could be expected. It was a very narrow escape and it was only a miracle that the girls were not killed.

Oleomargarine Cases.

Harrisburg, Dec. 3.—In the report of Dr. H. Leppman, analytic chemist, for Nov. to State Dairy and Food Commissioner Wells, he states that of 15 samples of alleged butter taken from Philadelphia stores, he found 12 to be oleomargarine. In the majority of cases brought up recently for the illegal sale of oleomargarine the defendants have chosen to pay the fine rather than stand trial. Commissioner Wells states that the wholesale dealers in Pittsburg have agreed to stop the sale of imitation butter at the time to be mutually agreed upon by their attorneys and the Department of Agriculture. If the dealers stand by this agreement there will be no need of appointing an attorney to prosecute them, but if they do not adhere to it ex-Representative A C Robertson, of Pittsburg, will probably be made the State's attorney in the cases. At any rate he is likely to be appointed to prosecute the suits brought against dealers at Sharon and other points in Western Pennsylvania.

Independent Oil Movement.

Bradford, Pa., Dec. 3.—The Pure Oil company held an open meeting here tonight. The chief speakers were David Kirk, of Pittsburg, president of the company, and Director W. L. Curtis, of this city. This is the organization, which in connection with the present independent oil organization—producing, refining and transporting—purposes to raise $1,000,000 in shares of $5 each for the purpose of marketing Pennsylvania oil. It was announced by Mr. Kirk that more than $70,000 of the stock had been taken in Pittsburg, and that returns from other regions were proportionately gratifying.

Jerome k. Jerome's Short Stories.

Jerome K. Jerome has written a series of short stories for The Ladies' Home Journal. They will be published during the ensuing few months, under the caption of "Stories of the Town." Mr. Jerome portrays well-known types or characters in these stories the first of which he calls "Blase Billy." The series is interesting from the fact that it constitutes the first short stories that Mr. Jerome has ever written directly for an American periodical.

Coal Operator in Trouble.

Pittsburg, Dec. 2.—T. D. Stein, the coal operator recently convicted of swindling his miners at Idlewood Coal works by using false weights and defective weigh scales, was to-day sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and three months' imprisonment in the county jail. The case will be appealed to the superior court. Stein will have to go to jail until the allotatur and order admitting him to bail is granted by a judge of the superior court.

IN JAIL FOR ROBBERY.

John Bowers, Who Looted the Julian Station, Comes to Grief.

A robbery occured at the P. R. R. Station at Julian on Oct. 22nd, at which $51 was stolen. For some reason or other this robbery was not generally known in Bellefonte and to a great many the first notice they had of it was on Tuesday afternoon when railroad officer Barr of Tyrone brought John Bowers to Bellefonte and lodged him in jail charged with robbing the Julian station at the above stated time. The reason for so much secrecy in this robbery was explained after Bowers had been arrested. It seems that among the bills and silver money stolen from the station were a counterfeit bill and a plugged quarter. This fact was evidently not known to the robber and after a search for more than a month the officers were finally rewarded in their hunt for the person who had so recently come into possession of the Railroad Company's money with so little trouble. This week Bowers went to a store in Tyrone and tried to spend some of the money which he had stolen. He was detected at once and officer Barr immediately put him under arrest. He was brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail. This should be a warning to burglars in the future: never try to spene any money which you have stolen, unless you are sure it isn't marked or counterfeit.

Death of a Young Man.

On Thursday, Nov. 21, Santford Kinney, a young man aged 17 years, 8 months, and 6 days, departed this life at the home of James McDonald, at Martha, Pa. About two months previous to his death, he was stricken down with that dread disease, diphtheria. After some time he almost fully recovered and it was thought there was no danger. But on going out too soon he received a relapse and was stricken down with diphtheria paralysis, which resulted in his death. His sufferings were keen and severe, but almost his last words were: "I am going home!" Oh, what a consolation it is that although we have to part with friends on earth, we have the privilege of meeting them in heaven where we need never part any more. A father and one brother survive him, his mother having preceded him to the tomb over a year ago. Interment was made in the Henderson graveyard.

Loving friends weep not for me
I long to be at rest—
How happy, happy I shall be,
Pillowed on my Saviour's breast.
The sting of death was harmless,
For the arrow painless fell.
To him it brought the tidings
Come thou and with me dwell.
The one we loved is silent,
His form in quiet lies,
But far above to heaven
His soul in triumph flies.
And when the trumpet soundeth,
We will all be brought together,
And then we'll sing God's praises,
Forever and forever.

A FRIEND.

Saw Her First Train.

In this world of modern improvements, it seems hard to believe the following, but it is nevertheless true: For the first time in her life, Mrs. William Young, of Pine Grove Mill, aged 86 years, came to Bellefonte on the train on her way to Howard on Thursday. Although she has lived more than four score of years, it was not only her first train ride, but it was the first time she ever saw a train. An instance of this kind is a very rare occurrence in Centre county and it is indeed a novel one. The expressions of wonder that the old lady made during her first train ride were highly amusing to the other passengers on the train.

THERE is perhaps no American writer whose autobiography would be more interesting than that of Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and we are glad to learn that she will contribted a series of reminiscence to McCLURE'S MAGAZINE. The first article appears in the December number, and will contain recollections of his early life in Andover; of her father, the distinguished Professor Phelps; and of her mother, herself a writer of stories, some of which reached a circulation of 100,000 copies.

DEATH OF REV. WOODCOCK

An Esteemed Bellefonte Citizen Dies Suddenly This Morning.

A NOBLE LIFE AT AN END

Poor Health For Six Months Finally Ends in Death to One of Our Best Known Ministers. Funeral On Friday.

Once again the unrelenting hand of death has cast a gloom over our community. This time it came in the removal of Rev. J. A. Woodcock whose death occurred suddenly Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Although death was not unexpected yet it came sooner than anyone anticipated. By the death of Rev. Woodcock, Bellefonte has lost one of its most esteemed citizens; one whose place will be hard to fill, and one who had by kindness to all, made scores of friends.

John Alexander Woodcock was born in Wells Valley, Fulton County, on June 13, 1841. He lived with his father until he went to Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport. He served as a private in the army in 1863, and in 1866 he entered the Methodist ministry. He served in the ministry until 1883 when he was compelled to retire owing to ill health. He went to Bedford shortly after he left the ministry for his health and after staying there about a year he returned to Bellefonte and took up the Insurance business. He was agent for the New York Mutual Insurance company but later resigned that agency to look after the interests of the Northern Western company. He was married in 1870. Two sons and a wife and brother are left to mourn his sudden demise. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence of the deceased on Linn street. Revs. W. A. Houck and J. W. Rue will conduct the funeral services and interment will be made in the Union cemetery.

The announcement of the death of Mr. Woodcock was a great shock to the people of Bellefonte as no one realized that his illness was so serious. While it is true that he had been ailing considerably during the last six months, yet no one thought death was so near at hand. He was confined to his bed about a week ago but he himself thought he was getting better. He desired to be propped up in bed this morning about 8 o'clock to eat his breakfast. This was done and scarcely had he commenced to eat when he suddenly became unconscious and remained in that state until death came to ease all suffering. His family was at his bedside at the time of his death; Jay however not reaching home before his father became unconscious.

The Editor's Lament.

A tender hearted writer in an exchange gets off the following: "When the women wear bloomers and their skirts are laid away, when their legs are no more rumors, coyly hid from light of day, when their petticoats forgotten, with its swishing, whisking swirl, and there's less demand for cotton, I'll be sorry for the girls. I'll be sorry for the lasses who in school are at their books—at the head or foot of classes—I'll be sorry for their looks, for their ma's will make them trousers, and good heavens! don't we know who were boys, but who are now, sirs, that they'll make a holy show! It is bad enough when Willie weareth pants his ma made, and it often knocks you silly just to see the youthful blade wearing pants that no man knoweth which is front and which is back if he cometh or he goeth there is quite an equal 'slack.' But you Susie! Oh, 'tis galling, scalding tears which downward glance, when you hear the urchins calling, 'Say, where did you get them pants?' You can see her youthful, glowing, but by no dead certain rule can you tell if she is going or is coming home from school. There'll be trouble you'll allow, sirs, there'll be anguish for your pa's when the daughters all wear trousers that are just revamped from ma's. So I'm weeping as I'm writing, and my great tears fall like pearls, scarce I know what i'm indicting, for I'm sorry for the girls."

Irwin Glassworks's Pay Increased.

Irwin, Pa., Dec, 3.—This morning the Penn Plate Glass company, of this place, started all parts of their works, after being shut down for about six weeks, owing to scarcity of water. They notified their employes that their wages would be increased 10 per cent.

Can Live Longer.

Harrisburg, Dec. 3.—Governor Hastings has granted a respite for Albert W. Woodley, of Allegheny, from December 26 to January 2, when he will be hanged.

FUGITIVE FROM ALTOONA.

City Solicitor Ambrose Becomes an Absconder.

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 3.—City Solicitor William Ambrose has absconded. He left this city last Friday a week ago, presumably for Pittsburg, and since that time no trace whatever can be gotten of his whereabouts. The amount short in his accounts is entirely unknown, but it is said that the figures will aggregate fully $15,000 to $20,000. The disappearance of Ambrose under these circumstances has caused a decided sensation, for he was one of the most widely known lawyers in this section of the Commonwerlth. Besides being solicitor for this city, he was solicitor for three prominent local institutions known as the Security, Mutual and Provident Building and Loan associations, and also the State building and Loan association. Outside of looking after so many public institutions, he enjoyed a large lucrative law practice and was one of the most highly respected citizens of Blair county. He is only about 40 years of age, a leading member of a Methodist Episcopal church, and leaves behind a heart-broken wife and a beautiful 12-year-old daughter, Florence.

The reason given for the surprising act is attributed to recent dissipation and not being able to face creditors who were pushing him. It is confidently believed that had Ambrose stopped short in his downward course, his many influential friends would have raised the shortage willingly and there would have been no necessity for his departure. What amount is due from him to the city is unknown until a careful accountant can have an opportunity to strike a balance on the tax books in his possession, but it is believed it will amount to about $8,000 or $10,000. The city, however, is amply protected by bond of $50,000. The State association comes out without losing a dollar, but at least one or two of the local institutions will have to help make up the remaining deficiency. A judgment note was left by Ambrose for $12,000 for the benefit of creditors, but the large amount of property owned by him is said to be fully encumbered. Six years ago Ambrose received the appointment of United States collector of internal revenue district, which embraces almost one-half the counties in the Commonwealth. Upon being appointed city solicitor he resigned the commissionership and soon became immensely popular as one of the ablest legal advisers the city ever had. Strong efforts have been made for the past 10 days to find the missing solicitor, but without avail. While in Pittsburg he mailed a letter addressed to his former law partner, Congressman J.D. Hicks, at Washington, saying that he would never return to Altoona. He also enclosed to Mr. Hicks the $12,000 judgment note mentioned and directed him to use it toward paying creditors.

Big Deal in Coal Lands.

A large territory of land under laid with coal has recently been sold in the Uniontown district of this state, and rival coke and coal companies are buying up all the coal lands they can secure. These sales indicate that several deals will be consummated in this section of the state before very long and that important developments may be looked for.

Professor Isaac A. Harvey, the well known geologist, in an article prepared for the Express several years ago, estimated the coal in Clinton county at 225 to 24 million tons, in beds of workable thickness, located in the Keating, Westport Beech Breek, 'Scootac and Queens Run basins. There are many beds of good coal in Clinton county that only await opening up to bring a fortune to the operators that engage in the work.—Lock Haven Express.

This Policeman Was Acquitted.

Norristown, Dec. 3.—C. D. Henderson a special policeman for the Reading railroad, charged with involuntary manslaughter in shooting and killing Harry Schofield, a Philadelphia boy, in September last, was acrepted this evening in the criminal court here. The boys had been stealing rides on coal trains and stoning houses along the road, and Henderson testified that when he shot Schofield he fired only to frighten the boys and not to injure any of them.

Criminal Negligence Regarding Medicine.

Harleton, Pa., Dec. 3.—Anna and May Singley, aged 2 and 4 years, children of Charles Singley, of Oneida, to-day drank the contents of a bottle of medicine containing opium. A physician was sent for, but when he arrived Anna was dead and May was in such a precarious condition that her recovery is doubtful.

—The Beaver Falls Council appointed four more policemen, making six in the town, because of the increase of lawlessness and robberies.

WHAT WAS DONE IN COURT.

Proceedings of Friday and Saturday Terse but Complete.

MANY CASES DISPOSED OF

Report of the Grand Jury Presented to the Court. Many Good Suggestions Made for Improvements.

FRIDAY MORNING

In the Libel suit of the com. vs. Nathias Parker in which R. G. Gingerich was the prosecutor, a verdict of not guilty but to pay all the costs, was found.

The next case was J C Nason and son vs. L C Bullock, plea assumpsit. This case was settled.

The report of the Grand Jury was then heard. It was as follows:

"To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the county of Centre, Nov. Sessions 1895. The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania inquiring for the county in all matters relating to the same do respectfully report: That we have acted upon twenty-four bills of indictment, and that seventeen were found true bills and seven ignored; and we further report that we have visited and inspected the county buildings. We found the jail in good condition in all respect except the water arrangement in the cells and would recommend new seats and wash-bowls for the same. We have also viewed the different offices in the Court House and find them in good repair excepting the Arbitration room which needs new papering on the ceiling. The District Attorney's office needs a new floor, new papering and repainting. We also find that more room is needed in the Jury rooms, a room for witnesses and more room in the library for the better accomodation of the court and attorneys and we therefore recommend that such necessary repairs and additions be made.

We desire to return our thanks to the Court and District Attorney for uniform courtesy and assistance during our deliberations.

DOCTOR ALBRIGHT

A BROAD MINDED PHYSICIAN WITH PROGRESSIVE IDEAS.

Believes in Recommending Any Medicine That He Knows Will Cure His Patients. Thinks Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a Great Discovery. He Sites Some Marvelous Cures.

From the Examiner, Lancaster, Pa.

"AKRON, PA., April 24th, '95.

DR. WILLIAMS' MEDICINE CO.:

Gentlemen—While it is entirely contrary to the custom of the medical profession to endorse or recommend any of the so-called proprietary preparations, I shall, nevertheless, give you an account of some of my wonderful experiences with your preparation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The fact is well-known that medical practitioners do not as a rule, recognize, much less, use preparations of this kind, consequently the body of them have no definite knowledge of their virtue or lack of it, but soundly condemn them all without a trial. Such a course is manifestly absurd and unjust, and I, for one, propose to give my patients the best treatment known to me, for the particular disease with which they are suffering, no matter what it is, where or how obtained. I was first brought to prescribe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills about two years ago, after having seen some remarkable results from their use. Reuben Hoover, now of Reading, Pa., was a prominent contractor and builder. While superintending the work of erecting a large building during cold weather, he contracted what was thought to be sciatica. He having first noticed it one morning in not being able to arise from his bed. After the usual treatment for this disease he failed to improve, but on the contrary grew rapidly worse, the case developing into Hemiphlegia, or partial paralysis of the entire right side of the body. Electricity, tonics and massage, etc., were all given a trial, but nothing gave any benefit, and the paralysis continued. In despair he was compelled to hear his physician announce that his case was hopeless. About that time his wife noticed one of your advertisements and concluded to try your Pink Pills.

"He had given up hope and it required a great deal of begging on the part of his wife to persuade him to take them regularly.

"He, however, did as she desired, and if appearances indicate health in this man, one would think he was better than before his paralysis.

'Why,' says he, 'I began to improve in two days, and in four or five weeks I was entirely well and at work.'

"Having seen these results I concluded that such a remedy is surely worth a trial at the hands of any physician, and consequently when a short time later I was called upon to treat a lady suffering with palpitation of the heart and great nervous prostration, after the usual remedies failed to relieve, I ordered Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The result was simply astonishing. Her attacks became less frequent and also less in severity, until by their use for a period of only two months, she was the picture of health, rosy-cheeked and bright-eyed, as well as ever, and she has continued so until to-day, more than one year since she took any medicine. I have found these pills a specific for chorea, or as more commonly known, St. Vitus' dance, as beneficial results have in all cases marked their use. As a spring tonic any one who, from overwork or nervous strain during a long winter has become pale and languid, the Pink Pills will do wonders in brightening the countenance and in buoying the spirits, bringing roses to the pallid lips and renewing the fountain of youth.

Yours respectfully,

J. D. ALBRIGHT, M. D."

LOCOMOTOR ATAXIA SUCCESSFULLY TREATED.

From the Oswego, N. Y. Palladium.

T. D. McCarthy, of this place yesterday told a Palladium reporter his experience with Locomotor Ataxia. The account is of interest because Locomotor Ataxia is supposed to be incurable and yet Mr. McCarthy is cured. He said:

"In October, 1892, I was working at my trade, that of a machinist, in the Eames Vacuum Brake Works, at Watertown, N. Y. I had been sick several weeks before I gave up and quit work. A tired feeling seemed to have taken possession of me, and rest as long and as well as I might I could not get rid of it. I took tonics and other medicines prescribed by the physicians there but kept getting worse all the time. Finally I became so bad that I could only walk a short distance, and that with the greatest exertion. My limbs seemed to me like so much lead, and there was a hitch in my walk. While walking I couldn't think of anything, not even the name of an acquaintance whom I might happen to meet in the street. Dr. Stevens, of Watertown, was my physician, and he it was who informed me that I suffered from locomotor ataxia, and advised me to go to my home. In the spring of 1892 I came to my father's home, 89 Varick Street, Oswego. I had about given up all hope of ever being anything but a helpless invalid. I couldn't sleep at night, and the physicians who attended dosed me with morphine and other opiates. Every day I tried to walk, and every day I appeared to be less able than the day before. I was about the worst looking wreck of a young man that you could imagine. It was in June, 1893, that I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I hadn't used the first box when I began to feel beneficial effects. My limbs appeared to be stronger and better able to sustain me. Gradually this feeling increased until finally I was able to lay aside my crutch and cane. Now I can walk or run as well as ever. I have for sometime past engaged myself in light work. I can't say too much for the Pink Pills. I hope every sufferer will try them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are now given to the public as an unfailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerves. The pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N.Y.

BY A SMALL MARGIN.

Academy Triumphs Only After a Hard Struggle.

Bellefonte usually has a game of football on Thanksgiving day and this year was no exception to the rule. It was originally intended that the Academy team was to play in Williamsport that day but a misunderstanding arose and the game was postponed until Dec. 7.

The game at the glass works meadow was between the Academy and Bellefonte High School elevens. Both teams had men missing and were compelled to take on subs. It however was a good snappy game and was interesting all through. In the first half the Academy kicked off and the ball was downed without much gain. At the first play the High School smashed the Academy end and the ball was advanced about twenty yards before the runner was downed. The Academy boys took a brace at this and were more on the alert. The ball was pushed backward and forward during the first half and exchanging of punts moved the ball from one end of the field to the other. It was very evident that the side that won the game would have to work for it and the boys were all on their mettle and worked like beavers to protect every inch of ground. The first half ended without any scoring being done and the ball in the High School territory. In the second half the High School boys began to weaken and were unable to stand the bucking of their line. In a few minutes by a series of rushes the Academy forced the ball to within a few inches of the High School goal line where another plunge took it over the line for a touch down. No goal could be kicked and the score was Academy 4; High School 0.

The ball was again kicked off but immediately downed. The Academy boys were pounding the High School line for gains and had the ball again worked well down the field when they lost it on a fumble. The High School boys had it and after four downs had been made, time was called. There must have been a mistake in the time in the second half as it surely wasn't more than half through when time was called. There should have been more than five minutes to play yet. No further scoring was done and at the end the score stood Academy 4; High School 0.

From the line up of the two teams Thursday it was impossible to size up either eleven. Both had subs on and moving about the men so much made the game slow. William Mills, M. Otto and Willis Ishler played best for the High School boys and Eldredge carried off the honors for the Academy. It is to be hoped another game will be arranged with the two regular teams. By doing this it will then be possible to determine which is the best team.

The teams lined us as follows:

Ishler	[illegible]	Harris
Knox	L T	Rearick
Eckenroth	L G	Rogers
Thompson	C	Goodfellow
Thomas	R G	Roan
Case	R T	Rothrock
Smith (capt)	R E	Lane
Otto	Q B	(capt.) Hughes
Rutt	R H	Eldredge
Strohm	L H	Curtin
Mills	F B	G. Harris.

Fayette County Institute.

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 28.—Superintendent of Public Instruction E. F. Porter has completed arrangements for the teachers' institute, commencing December 16, which will be the largest ever held in the county. There are 424 teachers in the county and 26,000 pupils enrolled. Among the lecturers will be Col. H. W. J. Ham, of Georgia; Dr. J. B. DeMott, Cambridge Mass.; Dr. Levin Irving Handy, Newark, Del.; J. E. V. Cook, Chicago; State Superintendent N. C. Schaeffer, Dr C. S. Ehrenfeld, California; Anna Buskbee, Edinboro; Dr. Silas S. Neff, Philadelphia; Prof. W. S. Jackman, Cook County Normal, Chicago; Prof. W. A. Orden, Toledo, O.; President T. B. Noss, California Normal, and Dr. J. N. Boyle, of this place.

Burned Out.

A dispatch from Philipsburg says that a house occupied by a family named Kale was burned last night. There was also a jewelry store in the building.

May Extend the Time.

Harrisburg, Nov. 28.—The state board of undertakers will meet in this city to morrow to adopt rules and regulations and fix the time and place for the examination of undertakers. The board has jurisdiction only over undertakers in the cities of the commonwealth. Under a rule adopted by the board all city undertakers must take out a license, for which they are required to pay $10 before Dec. 7. If they neglect to comply with this rule boards of health can not issue a permit to them for burying the dead.

The board has prepard a form of license, but has not yet issued any, and will not until after to-morrow's meeting. It is probable that the time will be extended to Jan. 1. After that date undertakers will required to pass an examination before they can obtain a license. The fee for the examinations and license has been fixed at $25. There are between 800 and 900 undertakers who come under the provisions of the act creating the board. Attorney-General McCormick has advised the board that licenses cannot be issued to minors to engage in the undertaking business.

—As generally set up the Christmas tree is a rather shaky affair, top-heavy, and in constant danger of being tipped over when it is touched, says the Ladies' Home Journal. If you want a substantial base for it, but one that will allow of its being moved easily without any danger of it being upset, go to some hardware store and borrow a set of stove trucks. Cover them with boards fastened securely to their frames. In the centre make a hole large enough to admit the base of your tree. Fasten strips of wood from each corner of the trucks to the tree, in such a manner as to brace it firmly in place. The casters under the frame will allow you to move the tree easily and safely.

Struck by a Train.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Nov. 28.—Mrs. F. C. Martsolf, whose home is on Mt. Washington, Pittsburg, was struck by train No. 4 on the Ft. Wayne railroad this evening, receiving injuries that are thought to be fatal. The woman had gone to take the train for Pittsburg, and was accompanied by her 10 year-old daughter. They were crossing the tracks at the station. When the train came along the little girl saw the danger and jumped backward in time to save herself but the mother, being hard of hearing, was hurled from the track by the engine. She is now in the Beaver Valley hospital in this city, and the attending physicians say there are no hopes of her recovery.

Curfew Will Not Ring To-Night.

Many of our exchanges are strongly in favor of a curfew bell at 9 o'clock in the evening to hustle the kids off the street. When we were a kid our mother used a piece of barrel stave for a curfew, which brought us in quicker than any bell would have done, and if mothers would use these same persuaders there would be no need to ring bells.—Irwin Standard.

Imitation Ice Caught Fire.

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 1.—Shortly before 12 o'clock this morning a fire occurred in the barroom of the Bellmont hotel, which caused a loss of about $1,000, and may result in the death of Elmer Tummelson from inhaling the flames. Some time ago the bar had been decorated with cotton presenting a winter effect of snow and ice This took fire and the bar and fixtures, including several large mirrors, were destroyed.

Rev. Father Sheedy's Church Reopened.

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 1.—St. John's Roman Catholic church, of this city, was reopened to-day with impressive ceremonies and in the presence of large audiences, after undergoing extensive and costly repairs. Bishop Phelan presided, and sermons were delivered by Rev. Fathers McCarthy and Elliott. This is the church of which Very Rev. E. H. Bush was formerly pastor, and now in charge of Rev. Morgan M. Sheedy, formerly of Pittsburg.

FOUR PEOPLE DROWNED.

A Woods Run Party Meet Death from the Capsizing of Their Skiff.

Uniontown, Pa., Dec. 1.—James McInford and his wife, John Pickup and Laura Stevenson, of Woods Run, were drowned in the Monongahela river at midnight last night. They had been in Brownsville all afternoon, and it was late when they started down the river in a skiff. When about two miles below Brownsville they met the steamer James G. Blaine coming up the river. They got to close to the steamer and the waves upset the skiff, throwing them out into the water. They soon became helpless and sank to the bottom. The bodies of the two men have been recovered, but the women are still at the bottom of the river.

Holmes Sentenced to Death.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—H. H. Holmes was refused a new trial yesterday, and the court sentenced him to be hanged. Holmes was unnerved throughout the ordeal. His attorneys will at once appeal to the supreme court.

—As Isaac Carson, a day laborer, of Irwin was crossing the Pennsylvania railroad tracks a short distance east of the station in Irwin, about 2 o'clock Friday morning, he was struck by No. 21, a fast train going west, and instantly killed. He was thrown up against a freight car on the siding and almost every bone in his body broken. Deceased was aged about 38 years and leaves a wife and several children.

—This record of a twenty-six hundred miles' journey in pursuit of big game, in the December HARPER'S, is the most interesting contribution to the literature of travel that has been made for many years. It describes a hitherto unknown region in northwestern America as it appears in winter, and the narrative is embellished with many illustrations from photographs made by Mr. WHITNEY.

A Case of Divine Healing.

The Philipsburg Journal Says: Rev. F. A. Cox, a former assistant pastor of the Free Methodist church of Philipsburg, and who will be remembered by many of our people, who went from here to DuBois and afterwards to Ridgeway, where he is now located as pastor of the Free Methodist church, writes the DuBois Express as follows:

My friends in DuBois and surrounding country will be more than glad to learn that my wife Mrs. Lydia Cox was perfectly healed by faith in Jesus on Monday evening, November the 18, 1895. The readers of the Express know that my wife had to go home from my circuit last year, and undergo nineteen operations, I had already engaged Dr. Bevier of Ridgeway to attend to her trouble which seemed to be racking her body again, but after offering the prayer of faith on November 18 the power of God came; my wife accepted Jesus as her healer, and to-day, thank God, she is well and hearty, and enjoying salvation from all sin and disease.

—THE CENTURY editors have had the chance to select twelve of the most striking of Hoset's famous pictures illustrating the life of Christ, and they will appear in the Christmas number. When the originals of these pictures were shown in Paris, they were given a special suite of rooms at the Salon, and people were often seen to go away weeping from the exhibition; and women sometimes made the tour of the rooms on their knees.

LOTS OF MUSIC.

Three Bands Give a Concert on Thursday Afternoon.

It has been known for some time that Bellefonte had lots of musicians, but this was never actually proven before. On Thursday afternoon, it was known that there was to be a band concert at the Court House Diamond. What band it was to be, seemed to be the puzzling point. About half past two o'clock the fun commenced, there was music to be heard coming rom the North, West and South wards; and the first supposition of the people was that one of the bands had been purposely separated and were playing soloes around town. But this was not the case. Three bands were out to show what they could do, and for more than two hours a large crowd of listeners stood around the different bands and each one inwardly decided which band he thought was the best. The Undine Band was in the middle with the Coleville and Bellefonte bands on the right and left respectively. They all played well and frequently the different selections rendered would be loudly encored. It was indeed a grand musicical feast and everybody enjoyed it. Two things were demonstrated by this concert on Thursday: First, that Bellefonte has first-class bands; and second, that the people would like to hear them more than they have done lately.

Military Accuracy.

An Irish drill instructor was putting recruits through the first stage of their drill.

"Oyes roight!" shouted the instructor, and in an instant every man's optics traveled together.

"As you were!" repeated the instructor but did not appear to derive the same satisfaction from the movemont.

"Oyes roight?" was the sharp command a second time repeated. "When I give the order, 'As you were!', I want to hear every man's eyeballs click together as they return to their sockets!"—Pearson's Weekly.

A Crowded House.

On Thursday evening a big crowd greeted the "Cold Day" company at the opera house. The actors were good comedians but they were evidently not aware that they were playing to respectable people. Some of the expressions and songs were vulgar and not fit for ladies ears to hear. It is to be regretted that such was the case as occurrences of this nature are injurious to the opera house. Manager Garman is not to blame as he expected no such acting. Perkins D. Fisher is a very funny comedian and caused much amusement. If the "Cold Day" company continues to use such language as it did in Bellefonte it cannot last long.

Probably Burned To Death.

Greensburg, Ind., Nov. 28.—A log house at the edge of the city burned Sunday night, and charred bones of human beings were discovered in the ashes yesterday. Two weeks ago a band of gypsies took possession of the hut. There were seven men and five women in the party, besides several children, three of whom were girls. The gypsies were seen at a point 12 miles from Greensburg, and there were but four women and two girls with them. Suspicion was at once aroused, and it is said that the bones discovered were those of the missing woman and child.

They Scrapped.

On Friday afternoon the Senior grammar school foot ball eleven drove to Milesburg to play the Milesburg team. They couldn't agree during the game and it came to a sudden end and the Bellefonte boys made a bee line for home. They said big hunks of coal followed them for some distance. It isn't likely they will go to Milesburg again to play foot ball.

Burglars Start a Bad Fire.

Lewistown, Pa., Nov. 28.—A disastrous incendiary fire at Milroy at 2 o'clock this morning destroyed a drug store, the Odd fellows' hall and a double dwelling house. The loss will reach $5,000, partially insured. The fire was started by burglars in the drug store.

Died on the Street.

It is reported that Jack McClellan, a violinist of Philipsburg, dropped dead in the street at that place on Thursday. It is not known what caused his death.

A PRETTY DANCE.

Undines Hold Their Annual Select Thanksgiving Eve Ball.

The much talked of and anxiously looked forward to, Thanksgiving Eve Select Ball was held dy the Undine Fire Company on Wednesday evening in the Arcade Hall. To say it was a success is to say the least that could be said. It was a complete success both socially and financially. Early in the evening the Undine Band together with the Fire Company gave a fine parade around town after which they all repaired to the dancing room. It was here that the evening's enjoyment was to be held, and soon the large room was filled with the merry dancers. The music was furnished by the Undine Band for the Grand March and the Orchestra played the dance music. The Grand March was skillfully led by Miss Celia McMahon and Joseph McMahon. It was one of the best marches we have ever seen and as the twenty couples cut the different figures they made a very pretty sight. Refreshments were served in an adjoining room which were fine and much enjoyed. The dancing was kept up until a reasonable hour when everybody lothfully departed for their homes feeling that it had been an evening well spent. It was one of the grandest Fire Company Balls ever held in Bellefonte and the good management during the evening reflected much credit upon the committee having it in charge.

Enemies After Seanor.

Latrobe, Pa., Nov. 28.—At 3 o'clock this morning fire destroyed the Latrobe steam laundry building and a horse and delivery wagon, no insurance. The building was owned by Sheriff-elect H. S. Seanor. The livery stable of Mr. Freidline, with buggies, carriages and harness, was also burned but the horses were saved; insurance $1,100, and the dwelling house of Robert Smith, county Republican delegate, was ruined. The total loss of this fire may reach $6,000. At this same hour an attempt was also made to burn the business house of Mr. Seanor on Railroad street, where, if once started a fine business block could hardly have been saved.

It is thought that ugly spite work against Sheriff Seanor is at the buttom of these fires.

Guessing for a Watch.

A novel guessing contest is that at Cunningham's cigar Palace. A large jar is filled with peas and every purchaser of cigars amounting to 10 cents, is privileged to one guess. A handsome gold watch is the prize for the one who guesses the correct number of peas in the jar. It is a good idea and is attracting considerable notice.

Lost a Horse.

On Wednesday Joseph Ritenour lost a valuable black mare. The mare took sick on Wednesday morning with colic, and although everything possible was done to save its life, the mare died on the same day. This is quite a loss as Joe valued the mare very highly.

Union Service.

A Union Thanksgiving service was held in the Presbyterian church on Thanksgiving morning which was largely attended by members of almost every congregation Rev. R. Leighton Gerhart preached a very able sermon which was listened to with the closest of attention.

Wasn't He Mad?

The Tyrone Times says: A farmer down in Huntingdon county had a fine lot of turkeys which he was getting in trim for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Imagine his anger the other morning when he entered the coop to find his birds gone and the following notice tacked up:

"Christmas comes but once a year, and when it does we get our turkeys here."

We truly hope the injury will not necessitate amputation. Editor Williams has our sincere sympathy in his time of trouble.

HOT WORDS IN PRESBYTERY

Pastor Foster Wins a Victory Over His Revolting Members.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Nov. 29.—The Pittsburg presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian church met in the chapel at Geneva college to-day. Rev. J. S. Martin, of New Castle, is moderator, and Rev. W. J. Coleman, of Pittsburg, clerk. Charges have been preferred against Rev. H. G. Foster, pastor of the College Hill congregation, for preaching doctrines contrary to the accepted beliefs of the church. Counter charges are made against his accusers of unwarranted attacks on the ministers, and papers were presented, signed by three members of the church sessions and a number of the church members, asking that R M Downie and John A Doods be ousted from the position of clerks.

All the papers relating to charges against pastor and people were referred to a committee of three. The committee made a report, recommending that all charges be withdrawn and that the 28 members who have withdrawn from the congregation be allowed to established a new church. The debate on the report was at first calm and peaceful, but the old spirit of hostility cropped out. Mr. Foster himself indulged in some strong language, and was called to order by the moderator. The session continued until almost 8 o'clock, and by a vote of 19 to 21 the report of the committee was rejected.

The revolting membership feel their defeat keenly, and gave notice of an appeal to Synod. Just at the moment of adjournment a hot war of words was indulged in between Dr. Johnson, president of Geneva college, and Rev. C. R. Wylie, of Winkinsburg.

He Should Bridle Them.

Several days ago 'Squire Smith, who lives on Bishop street, purchased some geese. He took them home and penned them up. As they did not seem to thrive as well as he thought they should, 'Squire left them out of the pen into the yard to give them some water. The door of the pen was hardly open when the geese made a dive for it and once out in the air they rapidly rose and soon were sailing towards the creek, much to the amazement of the 'Squire who was commencing to think that his geese were a thing of the past. Not giving up hope however, he dashed down to the creek at a rate that would have caused envy from any college sprinter had he witnessed it, and arriving at the bank of the creek he saw his truant geese calmly swimming around in the water, but at a safe distance from the shore. Some little boys who were near at hand were called and they looped the geese with a long pole, but not without considerable trouble. We would advise the 'Squire to bridle his geese the next time he drives them to water and he will then not be compelled to hire Buffalo Bill to lasso them.

An Important Office.

To properly fill its office and functions, it is important that the blood is pure. When in such a condition, the body is almost certain to be healthy. A complaint at this time is catarrh in some of its various forms. A slight cold develops the disease in the head. Droppings of corruption passing into the lungs bring on consumption. The only way to cure this disease is to purify the blood. The most obstinate cases of catarrh yield to the medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla as if by magic, simply because it reaches the seat of the disease, and by purifying and vitilizing the blood, removes the cause. Not only does Hood's Sarsaparilla do this but it gives renewed vigor to the whole system, making it possible for good health to reign supreme.

Corry Editors at War.

Corry, Pa., Nov. 29.—Willia G. Plumb, editor of the Corry "Flyer" was was again arrested this evening on a charge of criminal libel by J. A. Pain, editor of the "Leader." Some time ago Pain brought suit on the same charge, but the Grand Jury found no bill. Editor Plumb gave bail in $500.

A Polish Coke Worker Stabbed.

Uniontown Nov. 29.—During a drunken quarrel at the West End hotel here today a Polish coke worker named Novaka, from Brownfield was stabbed and dangerously injured. His assailant was a Watson. The fight is the result of an old feud between the English-speaking and the foreign miners.

On, Consistency!

The Lock Haven Express of Monday tells of a grand ball at the State Normal School, Saturday evening, at which the muric for the dancing was played by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra. Probably the ball opened with prayer and closed with the benediction.

Requisitions for Two Fugitives.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 29.—Gov. Hastings, to-day, issued requisitions on the Governor of New York for the arrest of Robert Anthony and George Babcock, charged with larceny in Bradford county.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

SUSPECTED OF MURDER.

A Highwayman Arrested in Hazleton on Suspicion.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 29.—James Boyle, constable of this city, arrested a highway man, named Peter Wiskofski, and it is believed the mystery surrounding the various depredations of brigands here will be cleared up, with the facts about a murder, for which Cooper Osefsky and John Martiana are now awaiting trial.

Patrick Shields, a well-known merchant of this city, was waylaid and robbed by two men on the highway near Beaver Meadow two weeks ago. He was so terribly beaten that he could hardly crawl to the nearest house. Katherine and Elizabeth Bachman went along the road a few minutes later, and one of them picked up a pocketbook. When she was about to look at its contents a man jumped out from the bushes, snatched the wallet from her hands and ran into the woods, but not before the astonished girls got a good look at him.

Peter Wiskofski appeared at the residence of Rev. Father Dembinski, a Polish priest, in this city, soon afterward. He handed the priest a pocketbook containing $15.68. He explained that while going along the Beaver Meadow road he had found the wallet.

Constable Boyle followed up the matter and "Honest" Wiskofski was arrested. The Bachman girls identified him, and the prisoner acknowledged that he took the pocketbook, but said he thought it belonged to a companion.

When asked who his companion was he replied: "Joe Leaman." Leaman is suspected of complicity in the murder of John Kokowski, a Polish merchant, for which three other men have been arrested, and Wiskofski's confession puts a different aspect on the case.

Flames At Burgettstown.

Burgettstown, Pa., Nov. 29.—The worst fire that ever visited this place occurred this morning. About 5 o'clock the barber shop of W. E. Lowe was discovered on fire, and the flames gained such headway that before they could be extinguished most all the business houses on that block were destroyed. Among the buildings burned were the "Enterprise—Call" printing office, B F McClure & Bros. hardware store, J D McCabe's grocery store, J A McKenzie's music store, C. McCreary's harness shop, the Masonic and Jr. O. U. A. M. hall and Isaac Fleming's residence and confectionary. The loss is estimated between $16,000 and $20,000. Most of the buildings were insured.

Arrested in Bellefonte.

Chief Police Snyder of Tyrone came to Bellefonte Saturday morning and took into custody William Bland, who had been arrested on Friday by Officer Garis on a warrant which has been held for some time. Bland got into trouble of some kind near Tyrone about a year ago when he was traveling through that neighborhood selling crockery. He at that time said his name was Banks. Officer Snyder took his prisoner back to Tyrone on the return morning train.

Getting There.

The girls at Vassar college are developing into new women about as fast as the most exacting along that line could wish. At their first field day sports the program consisted of a 100 yard dash, the running broad jump, running high jump, 120 yard hurdle, race and 220 yard run. The athletes wore rounded skirts and white sweaters, loose enough to disguise every curve of the body, and they won the admiration of their sister students who stood on the lines and yelled; "Go it, Baker!" "Remember that dinner. Johnson, and jump for your life!" 'You'll make it, love!' etc., etc., The idea will probably spread.

Coughs,

 Consumption.

The greatest cause of terror of the present day, formerly considered hopeless, is now conceded by the best physicians as curable under proper conditions. Its cause—a depleted condition of the system; a mal-assimilation of food; a wasting away of the tissues; an impoverishment of the blood. The result—a diseased condition of all the organs of the body; a formation of eating ulcers; and the result death from collapse or hemorrhage. But the cure is that greatest concentration into the least possible bulk of the vital elements of lean, raw beef. It is absorbed and nourishes with the least possible effort on the part of the stomach. It creates new tissue, enriches the blood, makes flesh, and by strengthening the great vital centres of the body enables them to perform their functions in a natural manner, and dispel disease. Thousands owe their life to its use.

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM

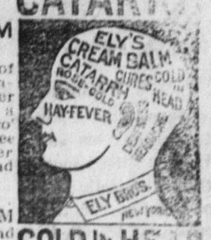
Apply a particle of the Balm well up into the nostrils. After a moment draw a strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.



ELY'S CREAM BALM opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages, allays pain and inflamation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the senses of taste and smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail.

Harper's Bazaar

IN 1896

The twenty-ninth year of Harper's Bazaar, beginning in January, 1896, finds it maintaining its deserved reputation both as a Fashion Journal and a weekly periodical for home reading.

Every week the Bazaar presents beautiful toilettes for various occasions, and the Baude and Chaplus illustrate and describe the newest designs from the finest models in Paris and Berlin. New York Fashions epitomizes current styles in New York. A fortnightly pattern-sheet supplement with diagrams and directions enables women to cut and make their own gowns, and is of great value to the professional modiste as well as to the amateur dress-maker. Children's clothing receives constant attention. Fashions for men are described in full detail by a man about-town. Our Paris Letter by Katherine De Forrest, is a sprightly weekly recital of fashion gossip, and social doings in Paris, given by a clever woman in an entertaining way.

Both the serials for 1895 are the work of American women. "Mrs. Gerald," by Maria Louise Pool, is a striking story of New England life. Mary E. Wilkins, in "Jerome, a Poor Man," discusses the always interesting problems of the relation between labor and capital. Short stories will be written by the best authors.

Special departments, Music, The Outdoor Woman, Personals, What Are Doing, Women and Men, report all the news themes of immediate interest.

Answers to Correspondents. Questions receive the personal attention of the editor, and are answered at the earliest possible date after their receipt.

The Volumes of the Bazaar begin with the first Number for January of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the number current at the time of receipt of order.

Remittances should be made by Post office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.

"Once Upon A Time."

The Saturday Evening Post would not have thought of giving a splendid picture in connection with a three months' trial subscription, but we are so much pleased with the beautiful 17 x 24 inch oleograph in 12 colors—"Once Upon a Time"—and we are sure that new subscribers who take the Post for three months will continue with us, that we have concluded to offer the above picture and The Saturday Evening Post for that time for only 50 cents not one-half the value of the picture itself.

"Once Upon a Time" is 17x24 inches in size, finely executed in colors, and shows a lovely boy and girl in antique dress, at a window in an oldfashioned room, telling fairy tales. It is a beautiful work of art, and will be an ornament to any parlor or sitting-room.

The Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia, is the oldest family and literary paper in America, if not in the world. Originally established by Benjamin Franklin in 1728 and appearing in its present character in 1821, it has had an uninterrupted career of 167 years! Besides being the oldest family paper, it claims the even more honorable title of also being the best. It has always kept in sight the Best in literature. Its pages are perfectly free from the degrading and polluting trash which charcterizes many so-called literary and family papers. It gives more for the money, and of a better class than any other publication in the world. To the people everywhere it will prove the best, most instructive, reliable, and moral paper that ever entered their homes.

Terms, $2.00 a year in advance.

Special to New Subscribers.

We want 50.000 new subscribers the coming year, and in order to introduce The Post into families where it is not now taken, we will send the paper every week for three months for 50 cents, and in addition we will send, all postage paid, a copy of the beautiful picture, "Once Upon a Time."

This offer will remain open but a short time and those who want to secure it had better send at once. Address

The Lawyer's Best Fee.

"Fee simple, and the simple fee
And all the fees entail
Are nothing when compared to thee
Thou best of fees female!"

That is what a lawyer wrote in his wife's album. He kept her in the best of health and humor by providing her with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for those seasons of sickness, debility and backache which are the peculiar lot of the female sex.

A minister at Okmulgee, Creek Nation, Ind. T., say: "am pleased to stand as a witness for your 'Favorite Prescription.' My wife was an invalid for about 17 months. Every remedy was used for her health and money spent in vain, but no relief could be obtained. Your 'Favorite Prescription' was recommended to me and I obtained one bottle. Her health soon began to improve and she was actually cured by it. It is a wonderful medicine. Every invalid lady ought to obtain it."

—Mr. James McConkey will give his Bible reading this Friday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock in the W. C. T. U. rooms, Crider's Exchange. All are cordially invited to attend.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Dec. 2nd 1895.

When Hon. Thomas B. Reed, of Me., to-day took his seat as Speaker of the House of Representatives, in the midst of the enthusiastic plaudits of his colleagues on the floor of the House and of the crowds which filled the galleries to their full capacity, he might have been excused for feeling proud of the honors which the republicans have delighted in heaping upon him. No greater honor could possibly be given any man than for the majority to unanimously nominate him for Speaker, not the perfunctory 'unanimous' nomination which usually follows when one candidate receives a majority of votes in a caucus, over his competitor or competitors, but a really unanimous nomination in which there was no competitor and in which no other candidate was either thought of or named. In the very nature of things such an honor can come to but few men, but that was fully deserved in this case is well known by every republican in the United States. There are other able republicans in the House—scores of them—but it was virtually settled by the republican voters more than a year ago that this honor should be paid to Mr. Reed. One of the most important immediate results of Speaker Reed's being honored in so extraordinary a manner is that he assumes his high office untrammeled by deals or promises—probably the only man to do so since Congress was established.

It is not yet certain when Speaker Reed will announce the committees of the House, but it is expected that he will do so before the close of the week. It is an encouraging sign that there is no scrambling for committee places. There seems to be a general disposition among the republican members to leave it entirely to Mr. Reed to say where they shall serve, knowing that so far as the old members are concerned he is an excellent judge of the places in which they can do the best work towards making this a business Congress, and that the few personal disappointments, which must necessarily follow the placing of members, will be largely overbalanced by the general good that will thereby be accomplished.

The other officers elected by the House were: Clerk, A. McDowell, of Pa; Sergeant-at-Arms, B. Russell, of Mo.; Door-keeper W J Gleen, of N Y; Postmaster, J C McElroy, of O.; Chaplain, Rev. H N Couden of Mich.

The most interesting feature of the first day's session of the Senate was the debut of the new senators. There were thirty of them, but fourteen of them served in the last Senate and were merely sworn in for new terms, while three of them—Sewell, of N J; Walthall, of Mass., and Chilton, of Tex.,—have been in the Senate before. Thirteen donned the senatorial toga for the first time, but some of them have long been prominent in public life. For instance. Senator Nelson, of Minn., has been a member of the House and Governor of his state; Senator Thurston, of Nebr., has taken a leading part in the last two or three National Campaigns; Senator Carter, of Mont., in addition to serving two terms as a delegate in the House, is chairman of the Republican National Committee; Senator Elkins, of West Va., was a delegate in the House from New Mex. and Secretary of War in President Harrison's Cabinet; Senator Gear, of Iowa, has been twice Governor of his state, served three terms in the House, and was Assistant Secretary of the Treasnry under the Harrison administration; Senator Burrows, of Mich., was one of the leading republicans of the House for a long period. Those who are new to national politics are, Clark, of Wyo.; Mantle, of Mont.; Baker, of Kansas; Prichard, of N Car., and Wetmore, of R I., republicans, and Baker, of Ga; Martin, of Va. and Tillman, of S Car, democrats, and Butler, of N. Car., populist.

Owing to the time of the House being taken up with the election of officers and the choice of seats Mr. Cleveland's message will not go in until to-morrow.

Representative W. Evans, of Kentucky, thinks the democrats started the story that he had withdrawn as a candidate for Senator, in order to create the impression that he didn't think the republicans had any chance to elect Senator Blackburn's successor. Mr. Evans has not withdrawn and he is confident that either himself or other republican can be elected to the Senate by the Kentucky legislature.

—A cave-in resulting in the loss of thirteen or fourteen lives occurred at the Tilly Forster mines at Carmel, N. Y., on Friday afternoon. Out of one gang of eleven men only five came out alive.

—It is reported there are 150 deaths a day from small pox in Rio Janeiro and the inhabitants are panic stricken.

—Alexander Dumas, the famous French novelist, who died in Paris on Wednesday evening, was buried on Saturday.

Still in a Squeeze.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 4.—Miners residing at the Boston colliery, near Plymoth, say that the squeeze continues in the No. 3 portion of the mine, although a fall may not occur for some weeks to come. There is every indication, however, that there will be no work about the place this year.

Women wearing Worth dresses and men wearing diamonds, are just as unhappy and uncomfortable over stomach and bowel troubles as are those who have only calico and bone buttons.

None of us live natural lives. We eat too much and are careless about our health. Abused nature finally revolts. The rebellion is slight at first, but it grows. Occasional constipation becomes chronic. Bowels won't work. Stomach gets sour and generates gas. Liver gets full of bile. Bile gets into the blood. Headaches come, dizziness, loss of appetite, loss of sleep, foul breath, distress after eating—and all because Nature did not have the little help she needed.

One of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets would start the poisonous matter in the way it should go. If there's a good deal of it, better take two—that's a mildly cathartic dose.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets never gripe and they cure permanently. You needn't take them forever—just long enough to regulate the bowels—then stop. In this way you don't become a slave to their use as with other pills. Once used, they are always in favor.

Some designing dealers do not permit their customers to have Dr. Pierce's Pellets because inferior pills afford greater profits. Such dealers are short-sighted. They overlook the fact that next time you will go where you are supplied with what you ask for.

Roosevelt on the Democratic Outlook.

The next Presidential campaign will be remarkable, if for no other reason than because in it the Democratic party will have to ask retention in power upon the ground that, if so retained, it will undo most of what it has done during the years that it had free governmentrl control. A party always bases much of its claim to to public support upon the shortcomings of the opposite party; but the Republicans may safely leave the tale of their foes' shortcomings to be told by their foes themselves. Next year it seems as if the Democracy would achieve the distinction of running, at one and the same time, both on the issue that it will hereafter keep the promises which hitherto it has failed to keep, and also on the issue that it is perfectly safe to trust it, because it never has kept its promises, and does not intend to, and therefore need not be taken at its work by any man who fears a convulsion in our financial or economic policy. —(From "The issues of 18[illegible] Hon. A Welcome Usher of '96.

The beginning of the new year will have a welcome usher in the shape of a fresh Almanac, descriptive of the origin, nature and uses of the national tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Combined with the descriptive matter will be found calender and astronomical calculations absolutely reliable for correctness, statistics illustrations, verses carefully selected, and other mental food highly profitable and entertaining. On this pamphlet, published and printed annually by The Hostetter Company, of Pittsburgh, 60 hands are employed in the mechanical department alne. Eleven months are devoted to its preparation. It is procurable free, of druggists and country dealers everywhere, and is printe in English, German, French, Spanish, Welsh, Norwegion Holland, Swedish and Bohemian. *

Stewards' Statement.

To the presiding elder and brethren of the A. M. E. quarterly conference in St. Paul's A. M. E. church assembled. Dear brethren: "It is with no little degree of happiness that we testify to the abundant blessings of God upon our church under the pastorate of Rev. H. A. Grant, during the first quarter of this conference year. We greatly rejoice in perfect freedom to say that peace, harmony and tranquility prevails within her borders and, that she is without a possible doubt gradually advancing to a higher spiritual standard and attainments. It is clearly preceptive by all, both saint and sinner, that she stands to-day in absolute favor with God as has been fully demonstrated by his presence in our midst to the conviction and conversion of 20 souls in the past three weeks, 16 of whom are members of our Sunday school, with others who have been reclaimed and still more to follow. We earnestly solicit the prayers of the conference that God may continue his blessings and protection upon us and eventually transplant us from the church militant on earth into the church triumphant in glory."

Was Instantly Killed.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 4.—Harry Alger, 50 years of age, for many years employed as a miner in the Avoca Coal company's mine, was killed to-day by a fall of coal. About four years ago he was injured by a fall of rock in the same mine, crushing one leg so badly that it was subsequently amputated.

—The H C Frick Coke company has bought from S. Hunter 190 acres of coal land in Unity township, Westmoreland county, for $90,000.

DR. HARTMAN SAYS

Now is the time to Guard Against Colds—The First Cold Weather.

In a recent lecture at the Surgical Hotel Dr. Hartman is reported as saying that no one need catch cold if he is willing to give the matter slight attention; that a cold is the beginning of chronic catarrh, consumption, disease of the stomach, kidneys and pelvic organs. All this could be prevented by taking his advice. The doctor's professional duties compelled him, for many years, to be much on the road night and day, all this time he never caught a cold. This could not have been done without Pe-ru-na, he says. At the slightest evidence of a cold a few doses of Pe-ru-na invariably check it.

This is especially seasonable advice, for the cold winter is here, with its storms, sudden changes, slop, rain and snow. Thousands of people will contract disease from which they will never recover, by catching cold. Dr. Hartman's advice should be heeded. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh of any stage or location. It is the most popular remedy for la grippe, coughs, colds, etc.

Send for a free copy of an illustrated book on catarrh. It contains sixty-four pages of valuable instruction. Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, O. Ask your druggist for a copy of The Pe-ru-na Almanac for 1896.

Coming to Foster's Aid.

Beaver Falls, Pa., Dec. 2.—On Saturday evening President W. P. Johnston, of Geneve college, gave orders that the Christian Endeavor society should not be allowed to hold its usual Sunday meeting in the college chapel, and that the independant prayer meeting should also be prohibited from occupying the chapel. The action of Dr. Johnston is an outgrowth of his frienkship for Rev. Mr. Foster of the Reformed Presbyterian church, from which the Christian Endeavorers and the prayer meeting people are seceders.

A NEW RAILROAD.

Charter Granted the Bellefonte and Clearfield Railroad on Monday.

A Dispatch from Harrisburg says: A charter was granted at the state department to-day to the Bellefonte and Clearfield Railroad company, capital $1,100,000 The line will be constructed from a point at or near Clearfield in Clearfield county. The length of the road will be fifty-five miles. The president is C. Wilhelm, of Reading, and the directors are J. Harris, D M Butts, L T Munson, J J Walsh and Henry Brockerhoff, of Bellefonte, and A V Hoyt, of Philipsburg."

As to the above we have nothing to say beyond the fact that it will make Bellefonte a great Railroad center. We have been surmizing all day. We are tired surmizing and will somebody else do that now.

Died From Hydrophobia.

Shamokin, Dec. 2.—Geo. Shuey, jr. aged 30 years, died this morning from hydrophobia. Nine months ago Shuey was bitten by a mad dog, but up to Saturday last he felt no ill effects from the wound. On Saturday Mr. Shuey complained of feeling nervous. As the hours passed his nervousness increased and he paced the floor in agony of restlessness. His wife and two children did all they could to soothe him, but he grew worse. He complained that his flesh felt as though it was being pricked by needles. Towards midnight he began to bark, snap his teeth and and froth at the mouth. By this time Mrs Shuey had summoned a physician, who with the aid of four men, tied Shuey down. The unfortunate man rapidly grow worse and went from paroxysm to paroxysm until he died.

Knocked From The Bridge.

Jeanette. Pa., Dec. 1.—Frederick Byers and John McClafferty were found dead on Saturday night on the Pennsylvania railroad track under the Third street bridge. It is supposed that they had attempted to cross the track and were struck by a train. Both men came here from Pittsburg some months ago and hvek at Fort Pitt. They were employed in the glass works.

Both Glycerine and the Men Went Up

Pittsburg, December 4.—A terrific explosion of glycerine occurred near Butler this morning which resulted in the death of Lowry Black and George Besler and the total destruction of the magazine owned by the Humes Torpedo company. Black and Besler had gone to the magazine to draw out some glycerine to send to the oil country. It is supposed that a can had been dropped and exploded. Fully 10,000 pounds were stored in the magazine, all of which was discharged. Fragments of the bodies of the victims were found a long distrnce away. The explosion shook the houses and broke windows in Butler, nearly two miles distant.

Corry Iron Works Burned Out.

Corry, Pa., Dec. 1.—The rear half of the main building of the Ajax iron works, including the carpenter shop and erecting room was totally destroyed by fire this morning and the main shops were partially burned out. The loss is $10,000, covered by insurance. A large force of men are temporarily thrown out of employment.

—John Vandevander, a well known citizen of McConnellstown, Huntingdon county, was found dead in his bed on Saturday morning. He was 83 years old and his death is attributed to old age. Mr. Vandevander served several terms as justice of the peace, one term as jury commissioner and was at the time of his death postmaster at McConnellstown. One son and one daughter servive him.

—Friday night last Miss Lottie Pringle, of Wilmore, Cambria county, attempted to commit suicide by shooting herself with a revolver. The ball struck a corset steel, glancing off and making a flesh wound. Had the steel not been in the way the bullet would have passed through her heart. She will recover. The only reason assigned is contained in the statement that she "had no pleasure in this world."

Lost His Balance and Was Killed.

Lancaster, Dec. 4.—John Kunkle, a prominent resident of Watt's station, met death last night in a very peculiar manner. He was at the railroad station awaiting a train and while walking, a lad with whom he had been joking pulling the skirt of his coat, losing his balance, Kunkle fell backward on his head, dislocating his neck and dying in five minutes. Deceased had been the manager of a number of furnaces in this section.

SELLING A MINE.

A Western Man's Great Luck in Disposing of His Property.

"It is the easiest thing on earth to sell a mine in London for almost any price, provided you have anything to show an expert," said Major Frank McLaughlin. "There is also a right way and a wrong way to go about it. Some time ago I went to London to negotiate the sale of some mining property. Of course, the first thing I had to do was to let capital know what I was there for. Then, when inquiries commenced, I simply said: 'Gentlemed I have mining property to sell. If you mean business and want to buy, send your expert out to examine the property and make a report on it. You will know then what you are buying.

"A company was organized. The expert examined the property and reported favorably, and a meeting was held to discuss terms.

"'Now, major,' said the spokesman, 'we have found that the property may be worth something. What is your price?"

"'Two hundred and fifty thousand,' said I.

"'That is more than we expected to pay. We expected to pay about $200,000. There is not much difference between 200,000 and 250,000. If you will drop the 50,000 we will take it.'

"I expected to get about $100,000 for the property, so with a show of reluctancy I agreed to accept their offer. When the papers were made out, I was surprised to learn that they had been talking about pounds and I about dollars, but I was very careful not to let my surprise leak, and that is the way I got $1,000,000 for the mine. Great people to do business with."—San Erancisco Post.

Pitched From a Horse.

A Westport Lad Sustains Serious Injuries.

Fred Schnars, son of William Schnars of Westport, is lying in a very serious condition, the result of injuries received on Sunday says the Lock Haven Democrat. The boy is at out 14 years old. On Sunday while wildly riding a borrowed horse up along Kettle creek a short distance above the village, the animal stumbled and fell, and the boy was thrown head first into the mud and water on the road. The horse ran back to the town and the fact that he was riderless, caused a brother of young Schnars to institute a search for the boy. He found him bleeding and still unconscious in the mud, but the sight so unnerved him that he could not render his injured brother any assistance. John J, Mansfield, on learning of the accident mounted his bicycle and hastily wheeled to the spot and picked the unconscious form from the road. The injured lad was nearly smothered, as his face was buried in the mud. Dr. Rosser of Renovo, was summoned, who after making an examination, ascertained that while no bones were broken, the injuries are confined chiefly to the head, the scalp being badly cut and bleeding from within. The injured lad has been delirious ever since the accident.

—Samuel Hunter, of Unity township, Westmoreland county, recently sold 190 acres of coal land to the H. C. Frick Coke company for $90,000.

—Friday morning last the general store and dwelling owned by John T. Overdorff, at Morrellville, were destroyed by fire. The loss is $3,500 and is insured.

—Honey is reported to be scarce. The dry weather affected the flowers in such a way as to deprive the bees of much of their resource for honey products.

—John Thompson, aged 12 years, son of David Thompson, of Glen Campbell, on Friday fell from coal tipple No. 3 at that place and was killed. He was engaged in trapping at the time.

—About 2 o'clock Thursday morning an incendiary fire, started by burglars, burned the drug store, the Odd Fellows' hall and a double dwelling house, located in Milroy, Mifflin county. The loss is almost total and will reach $6,000, with a partial insurance.

—Recent deaths in Juniata county are: Mrs. Barbara App, of near Mahantongo, aged 75; James Shoaff, of Port Royal, aged 89; Mrs. Anna B. Meloy, of Spruce Hill township, aged 51; Mrs. Elizabeth R. Walters, of Beale township, aged 79; Mrs. John Gingrich, of Walker township, aged 81.

—Thursday a young man named Hosan had the ends of three of his fingers on his left hand sawed while at work on Ferguson's stave mill in Howe township, Perry county. They had to be amputated, two at the first joint and the middle one a the second joint. The thumb was also sawed, but not injured sufficiently to require amputation.

—At a meeting held in Broad Top City on the 28th it was decided to erect a monument over the grave of Thomas White a member of the Boston tea party and a hero of the Revolution. Officers were elected and as a member of the committee on finance David White, of Altoona, was appointed.

Hood's Is Good and Great

It Cured Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Etc.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me more good than any physician. I had catarrh and dyspepsia 20 years, and tried different remedies and prescriptions without benefit. The doctors told me

I Could Not Live.

One day after reading of the wonderful cures effected by Hood's Sarsaparilla, I resolved to try one bottle. It did great and good work so I continued, and after taking four bottles it is with joy and gladness that I write that I am perfectly cured

And Am a Well Man Today.

My wife was troubled with nervousness and a general tired feeling. She could not walk any distance or do any heavy work. Her rest was broken at night. She has taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and now she can do any ordinary work without trouble, sleep soundly, and go about without being over-fatigued. We know it is a splendid tonic." J. M. Free Trade Deadly to Agriculture.

Demagogs and charlatans who have been preaching the beauties of free trade, and to whose pernicious influence we are indebted for the terrible blow to farming dealt by free wool, will be astounded at the utterance against them which comes from the house of their friends and teachers. Lord Salisbury, the Premier of Great Britain, made an address at Walford England, Oct. 30, before a great assemblage, in which he said most distinctly that the departure for free trade which England made in 1849 had ruined her farmers. His lordship's actual words were:

Since the repeal of the corn laws we have had the strongest cause to lament that, though the profectionists resisted, their warnings had not been listened to more carefully. The repealer laughed at the idea of its injuring husbandry; but a lowering of prices resulted, and free trade has almost killed husbandry in several countries.

History, it has been well said, is "philosophy teaching by example." What better example can we have than that of England, and what stronger testimony than that of the distinguished statesman who is at the head of her affairs?

A Queen as Physician.

Queen Amalie, of Portugal, has taken up the study of medicine in order to cure her royal consort of his increasing corpulence. The King began to gain in weight some years ago, in spite of the fact that he ate and slept but little and led a very active life. He consulted several physicians, but as he could never make up his mind to follow their directions, the Queen, whose influence over the rebellious invalid is great, determined to doctor him herself. So she devoted herself to study, and a short time ago passed a medical examination, which qualified her to undertake the King's case. A marked and steady improvement is said to have taken place in the monarch's health, since he religionsly obeys the Queen's injunctions.

Oleo Suits at New Castle.

New Castle, Pa., Nov. 29.—Special Agent F. N. Moore, of the State Department of Agriculture, appeared here to-day in the Oleo suits against John Green, Charles McCandlass and Harry G. Welsh. Green settled his case by paying $102, McCandlass and Welsh, through their attorneys, made a stubborn fight. Alderman Breckinridge reserved his decision until next Monday.

—The City Council, of Nashville, Tennessee, and the Tennessee Centennial Exposition management are sending out urgent invitations to the cities and states of the country inviting them to make exhibits at the great fair of 1896, and offering them space either for exhibits or for buildings free of cost.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing, it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by F. Potts Green, druggist, Bellefonte, Pa

—At Martins Ferry the engine in Wilson Bros. laundry became unmanageable yesterday and did considerable damage by shaking the building.

—Isaiah Whitby died at Uniontown from lockjaw, caused by wounds received from the accidental discharge of his gun while he was hunting a few days ago.

We have on the table the 'Social Economist' for Dec. a Journal of Statesmanship, Economics and Finance, Geo. Gunton editor.

This magazine (like the School of Social Economics, established by the editor, Geo Gunton) represents the American School of Political Economy, as distinguished from the English and other foreign schools. It is the only magazine of this kind published in the United States It is a valuable book of reference to the busy man whose time and opportunities are limited it is invaluable. Its economic policies are in advance of all political parties, and practical politicians will be especially interested in it. It is also of interest to all other intellegent readers is full of valuable articles from the pen of the best writers in this country and Europe. The December number has an article on "The legal meets of Venezuela's Case" that cannot fail to oe of interest to everybody. It is a magazine of eighty pages neatly made in clear large type in fact it is a thing of beauty. Terms $2.00 per year. Address Social Economist Publishing Co. Union Square, New York City. The work is issued monthly, you can get it on three months trial for thirty cents. Try it and you will be pleased with it.

Potatoes in North Dakota.

Potatoes are so plentiful and so unprofitable at ruling prices in North Dakota that a farmer of Grand Forks has announced that he will not dig the large quantities he has, and has invited his neighbors to help themselves and take all they care to for the trouble of digging and carrying them away. What they don't take, he says, will be left to rot in the ground.—Exchange.

This shows something radically wrong with the railroads in North Dakota. They are cutting their own throats as well as the farmers' by not hauling those potatoes to market at rates which will leave the farmers some encouragement for raising them. This is stating it as a plain business proposition, without sentiment of any kind. Potatoes ought to be carried from North Dakota to New York and New England as cheaply as they can be taken thither from Scotland. If the managers of the North Dakota railroads were competent business men they would see this at once. Even if they carried one season's crop at no profit, or even at a loss, it would still be good business policy to see that the potatoes found a profitable market, for it would develop the farms along their lines, and they would have the hauling of the goods the farmers bought with the proceeds of their potatoes. If New York and New England could be brought into the habit of looking to Dakota for potatoes instead of to Scotland it would insure a steadily increasing business for the roads.

Unfortunately, railroad managers will not look so far ahead. They can not be made to see farther than the next semi-annual dividend, and they want to scalp everything in sight for the benefit of that.

Tramps Had a Serious Fight.

Greensburg, Pa., Dec. 2.—James Kelly and Frank Miller, who murderously assaulted William Vetters on Friday night, were committed to jail here this morning. Frank Brown, a companion, was also put in prison as a witness against the accused men. The parties were all tramps, and quarreled over the distribution of a "lay out," received by one of them at a farm house. Vetters will recover, but one eye is gone as the result of the bullet.

Hurd Procures a Stay.

Holidaysburg, Pa., Dec. 2.—John Hurd commissioner of Blair county, was sentenced to-day to pay $50 fine and to surrender the occupancy of his office, for drawing money out of the county treasury for his own use on public contracts. This afternoon Judge Dean granted a writ of allocatur staying the proceedings until they can be revived in the Supreme court. The effect of this action will be to permit Hurd to serve almost the entire remainder of his term.

—Youngstown will be made a first-class postoffice on Jan. 1, and the offices at Hazelton and Brier Hill will be made substations.

DEATH OF CHRISTIAN DALE, JR.

An Old Soldier Succumbs to the Grim Destroyer of Humanity.

On Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, the death angel stole into the home of Christian Dale, Jr., at Pleasant Gap, and separated the soul from the body of that good old soldier and citizen. Death was not unexpected, yet when it came it caused grief and pain, for the deceased hed been a kind an d charitable neighbor and his true worth was not fully realized until he had passed into the great beyond. The deceased was a son of Christian Dale and was born Oct. 6, 1835 and at the time of his death was just 66 years, 1 month and 24 days old. His early life was spent on his father's farm and in winter he taught school. In Sept. 1861, he enlisted in the 49th Penna. Reg't., as a private. He was rapidly advanced and served all through the war until July, 1865, when he was mustered out as Captain of Company H. He was in every battle that his regiment was engaged in and his war record was a brilliant and daring one. After the war he returned home and took up the life of a farmer and started a grist mill on his place near Pleasant Gap. The mills were called the Logan mills and are well remembered by old residents of Pleasant Gap. He was married to Miss Katharine Musser, of Pine Grove Mills, about 1867; his wife dying about five years ago. He was secretary of the Centre County Fire and Insurance Company P. of H. for many years, which position he resigned last January. He was a member of the Union Veteran Legion No. 59 of Bellefonte, and the funeral will be conducted by this order. He was their Colonel in 1894; and also a member of Post 95, G. A. R. of Bellefonte.

The funeral will be held from the late residence of the deceased at Pleasant Gap on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

The surviving brothers and sisters are Mrs. Susana Musser, of Filmore; Henry Dale, Oak Hall; George Dale, near Lemont; William F. Dale, Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Kate Musser, Pine Grove Mills; Philip S. Dale, Woodward; Austin Dale, Oak Hall; and A. A. Dale and Clement of Bellefonte. Solomon Dale, a brother, was killed at the battle of Spottsylvania Court House, May 12, 1864. This is the first death in the family since the death of this brother in the war.

There are few residents of Centre county whose removal by death would make a vacancy that will be as hard to fill as that caused by the death of our esteemed friend Christian Dale, Jr. Always trying to do good, he had a kind word for everybody with whom he came into contact with. To those who knew him his death will be a great shock and his wide acquaintance makes his demise all the harder to bear. But the Almighty knowing everything does only that which is well, and our loss is his gain. May his spirit rest in peace.

TAKING CHANCES.

WOMEN ARE CARELESS.

They Over-Estimate Their Physical Strength. Advice to Young Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Women are very apt to over-estimate their strength and overtax it.

When they are feeling particularly well, they sometimes take chances which in the long run cause them much pain and trouble. This is due largely to their not fully realizing how delicate their sensitive organism is.

The girl who has just become a woman can hardly be expected to act wisely, everything is so new to her. She, however, should be told; and every woman should realize that to be well her "monthly periods" should be regular. Wet feet, or a cold from exposure, may suppress or render irregular and fearfully painful the menses, and perhaps sow the seed for future ill health.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will ever be the unfailing remedy in such cases as well as all the peculiar ailments of women. Millions of women live to prove this. Mrs. M. L. Verrill tells plainly what it has done for her:—

"I will write you a few lines to tell you what my troubles were before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It was the same old story,—my back and lower part of my abdomen and painful menstruation. Of course it was female weakness. The doctors (I have tried five different ones) called it chronic inflammation of the womb.

"I had leucorrhœa for over eight years, ulcers on the neck of the womb, terrible headaches and backaches. Your medicine completely cured me." — Mrs. M. L. Verrill, 223 Newell Ave., Pawtucket, R.I.

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS

Edited by ALBERT SHAW.

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS, as its name implies, gives in readable form the best that appears in the other great magazines all over the world, generally on the same date that they are published. With the recent extraordinary increase of worthy periodicals, these careful reviews, summaries, and quotations, giving the gist of periodical literature, are alone worth the subscription price.

Aside from these departments, the editorial and contributed features of the REVIEW OF REVIEWS are themselves equal in extent to a magazine. The Editor's "Progress of the World" is an invaluable chronicle of the happenings of the thirty days just past, with pictures on every page of the men and women who have made the history of the month.

The Literary World says: "We are deeply impressed from month to month with the value of the 'REVIEW OF REVIEWS,' which is a sort of Eiffel Tower for the survey of the whole field of periodical literature. And yet it has a mind and voice of its own, and speaks out with decision and sense on all public topics of the hour. It is a singular combination of the monthly magazine and the daily newspaper. It is daily in its freshness; it is monthly in its method. It is the world under a field glass."

Won Her First Case.

New York, Nov. 28.—Miss Mary E. Philbrook of Jersey City, the first female lawyer in the state made her first appearance in the Union county court, in Elizabeth, yesterday, and, what is more, won her first case. The young woman's appearance in the court room created an interest that extended to all parts of the county buildings. County officials, lawyers, clerks and students hurried from all quarters toward the court room when the announcement was made generally that the "woman lawyer" was pleading a case before Judge McCormick, who was sitting in the orphan's court.

The crowd of attaches who expected to find "a new woman" with short cropped hair and eyeglasses, were astonished to find instead a good looking women, about 23 years old, attired in a dark green dress black sacque and stylish bonnet, and whose modest demeanor and business-like appearance suggested none of the characteristics of the up-to-date girl.

Miss Philbrook's reception was a very cordial one. She, with Senator Foster M. Voorhees as her chaperon, was introduced to all the members of the bar in the court room, many of the prominent lawyers in the county being there. All tendered their congratulation and best wishes for her future success, to which Miss Philbrook responded with grace, not at all embarrassed.

The young woman, after a few preliminary remarks, made in a rather low tone, produced and read a long and carefully prepared brief containing affidavits. Her argument, which consumed about twenty minutes, was made in a clear, but low tone of voice, necessitating close attention in order to catch the words. She was not at all excited, and when through, quietly deposited in a large leather brief bag that she carried a bundle of legal papers she had used. The court, after listening to both sides, gave its decision in Miss Philbrook's favor. The young woman smiling ly bowed her approval.

Rather a Tough Subject.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 23.—The movement to offer prayer for Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll at noon on Thanksgiving day met an enthusiastic response to-day. The Christian Endeavorers were joined largely by Epworth Leaguers and Christians generally in the effort to secure Ingersoll,s conversion, and many an old "Mother of Israel" pleaded with tears for the skeptic as if he were her only son.

—Lock Haven Express, Nov. 27: A man named McCauley met death in a singular manner at Cross Forks, on Kettle creek, on Monday night. The man who is said to have been drinking, laid down in the sawdust at the Lackawanna Lumber company's mill, and turning over on his face smothered in the sawdust.

—A Berlin (Somerset county) Record correspondent writes: "On the Daniel Keefer farm, in Allegheny township, is a red oak tree that is a curiosity. At the ground are two distinct trunks, four and a half feet apart, the perpendicular one three and a half feet in diameter, the other one two and a half feet in diameter. Seven feet above the ground the two trunks join and form a compact body about four feet in diameter. Up to where the trunks seperate again is about twenty feet. The tree exhibits a healthy and lively growth."

Barn and Stock Destroyed.

Carlisle, Nov. 28.—The barn belonging to the Sergier estate, near here, together with eight horses and seven cows, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $8,000.

A TIE GAME.

High School and Academy Second Elevens Play Great Foot Ball.

Foot Ball is still the craze in Bellefonte even if the season for the big teams has closed. On Thanksgiving day a game was played between the first elevens of the High School and Academy and on Friday the second elevens of these two schools met on the field, both determined to do or die.

After the first line-up it was very evident that both teams were pretty evenly matched and that no matter who won, the score would be close. In the first half the ball was pushed back and forth on the soggy field and owing to the quick tackling of both teams no scoring was done in this half. The game was replete with fumbles and off-side plays by both sides. Considerable kicking was done and often the ball was kicked out of danger by the full backs. Once or twice the High School boys had worked the ball almost down to the enemy's goal when they lost it on a fumble. Neither side could score in this halt and at the close of the game the teams left the field with the score standing 0 to 0.

The High School boys made one touchdown but it was not allowed.

The teams lined up as follows:

Rothrock	L E	W. Dorworth
Potter	L T	McClure
Fisher	L G	Hamilton
Bell	C	Blair
Weaver	R G	Knox
L. Curtin	R T	Kline
Rogers	R E	Case
Valentine	L H	Ishler
Keller	Q B	Lukenbach
J. Curtin	F B	Kellerman
Harris	R H	Eckenroth

Thanksgiving services.

A General Thanksgiving service was held in the A. M. E. Church on Thanksgiving evening ot half past seven o'clock. Rev. Grant conducted the services which were very interesting and which were attended by the many members of the church.

Frank Boyer, a popular young man from Altoona, is at present the guest of Harry Walkey of this place.

Fire in a Jail.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 28.—Shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon fire was discovered in the stable in the rear of the Berks county jail. A general alarm was sent in and great excitement followed, but no serious damage was done. The fire, it is said was the work of an incendiary. The prisoners were promptly locked up until the excitement subsided.

The last Tyrone Forge Closed.

Tyrone, Pa., Dec 1.—The Tyrone forges closed down in all departments yesterday for 10 days, with a prospect of making the shutdown indefinite. A lack of orders is the cause. Between 75 and 100 men are thrown out of employment. Bar and strap iron and "blooms" are the principal out put of these forges, which are the last of a number which need to be in active operation in this vicinity, the others having been closed several years ago and never put into operation again.

Wool Growers Demand Protection.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The meeting of the wool growers of Washington county yesterday elected J G Clark, of South Franklin township, a delegate of the national convention in Washington, D. C. J. M. Berry was chose n president of the association; R L Murie, secretary, and R. D Wylie, treasurer. The resolutions declared that while it is supposed that President Cleveland will vote any measure imposing a duty on wool, the growers must prepare for the restoration of the duty next year.

Killed While Carrying Supper.

Johnstown, Pa., Dec. 1.—Mrs. Peter MacGuire of the Twelfth ward of this city was run over and instantly killed in the Cambria Iron Company's yard this afternoon. She had carried supper to her son, who workes in the blast furnace, and was returning home when she was struck by a car, which was in rapid motion.

Foul Play Feared.

Shamokin, Pa., Dec.—O. P. Mutchler, one of the wealthiest and most influential residents of Shamokin townshipis, disappeared mysteriously yesterday. His family is greatly alarmed, as foul play is feared. He was married one year ago.

It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A Small Judicious Investment Often Brings a Fortune.

DEAR READERS:

We have heard from many of you during the brief period that our advertisement appeared in this space. Any others desiring full reports and statements can secure same by writing to us.

The further opening up of the South Central group of gold mines, and the erection of a Stamp Mill to reduce the company's ore to bullion, is a splendid illustration of the judicious use of capital.

1. Mr. Barry, formerly of Cripple Creek, the Bonanza gold camp of Colorado, sold his interests there, and bought the Morning Star gold mine, a producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

2. Captain Plummer, formerly of the Granite Mountain mine, is now working the Delamar Mine, a large producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

As the Granite Mountain (Gold and Silver Mining Co.) stock rose from about twelve cents a share to over $50 a share, and paid from 25 cents to 50 cents per share per month in dividends, under the superintendency of Captain Plummer, we consider him a pretty safe guide to follow in mining, and we invite you to participate in thee nvestment.

A Thanksgiving Dinner.

On last Thursday, Mr. and. L. E. Jodon spent Thanksgivin day by visiting some of their near neighbors, to help them in their butchering work; and at the same time extended to their friends a splendid Thanksgiving dinner. Mrs. Jodon knows so well how to prepare such a dinner and the table fairly groaned beneath the very many different kinds of eatables that were there to eat.

We extend our many thanks for an invitation to the above excellent dinner and also for other kindnesses shown to a representative of this paper while in this vicinity.

NARROW ESCAPE.

James Gallagher Injured on the Railroad on Thursday.

A frightful accident was that which occurred about 8 o'clock Thursday morning by which James Gallagher aged about 50 years almost lost his life. It seems that Gallagher was walking along the railroad near the round-house and as he was near the trestle he was struck by the Snow Shoe train and badly injured. The train was stopped and the unfortunate man brought to the P. R. R. Station where it was found that besides having a rib broken he was badly bruised and scratched up. He was removed to the Bush House and his injuries attended to. The latest report was that he was resting as well as could be expected although he suffered considerable pain. It seems that he is slightly hard of hearing and had gone to get a bucket of water. He was returning from the spring and had just about crossed the the trestle when he was struck by the train. It was a very narrow escape and the greatest wonder is that he was not instantly killed.

A Well Known Editor Recommends Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm.

For the first time in my life I give a medical testimonial, said H. Y. Rush, of Dayton, Ohio, the other day, and only do so now from a sense of duty that I owe to other sufferers. Mr. Rush was thirteen years editor of a religious weekly in Dayton, Ohio, and has been a minister of the Gospel for forty years, so that with his age and experience he does not speak lightly when he says:

"I have given your Catarrh Balm a most thorough trial and found it all, and even more, in its immediate and permanent good effects, than I had anticipated. From the beginning of its use and continuously it was highly beneficial and curative. For catarrh, colds, difficulty in nasal breathing, prevention of colds, soreness of throat, it is the only remedy myself and family have found that does all and more than it promises." Nasal catarrh in some of its forms is so common and every day a matter that the fact that it may prove a dangerous ailment is apt to be overlooked Pretzinger's for a cold in the head is a charming remedy; used at night the cold will be gone in the morning; used while the choking spasm is on the paroxysm will cease instantly and the breathing will come naturally. Three or four jars will cure a chronic case of catarrh. A small sample will be sent on receipt of 2 ct. stamp by Pretzinger Bros., Chemist, Dayton, Ohio.

Buried Wednesday.

The funeral services over the remains of Christian Dale, Jr., were held from his late home in Pleasant Gap at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Revs. Zehner, of Bellefonte, and Leisher, of Boalsburg, conducted the last rites. The Union Veteran Legion and the G. A. R. Post of Bellefonte, of which the deceased was a member, had charge of the services and presented a handsome white cross as an emblem of the esteem in which they held their departed comrade. The cross was the badge worn by the members of the sixth corps during the war and this cross of flowers was placed in his last resting place. The funeral was largely attended by the friends from miles around and the cortege was followed to the tomb by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

Pulled Them In.

On Monday two individuals drove to Bellefonte in a cart and immediately commenced to fill up on "red-eye." They evidently were laboring under the delusion that our streets were race tracks and for several hours they made their old hoss fly around at a great rate. On Monday evening officer Garis concluded that they had enough fun and locked them up for the night. As the horse and cart could not be placed conveniently in the "cooler" they were placed in Potters Livery until their owners got sobered up.

Very Ill.

It is reported that Jacob Bartlett, Sr., is seriously ill at his home in this place. It is to be hoped that he will recover soon and be around among his many friends. For many years he was the mail carrier from the different trains to the postoffice, which position he was compelled to resign owing to his advanced age.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Three People Lodged in Jail on Monday Evening, for Burning a Mill.

On Monday evening about 10 o'clock, Edward Frabal, Calvin Frabal and Mrs. Mary Wolfe, aged 18, 20 and 25 years respectively were brought to Bellefonte and arraigned before 'Squire Keichline for a hearing on the charge of Arson. They were accused of burning a stave and head mill a few miles below Hublersburg in Walker township. The woman had a little one-year old child with her and it two was lodged in jail with its mother. As arson is not a bailable offense the prisoners were immediately installed at Fort Condo until next court.

"A jest's prosperity lies in the ear
Of him that hears it, never in the tongue
Of him that makes it." —Shakespeare.

No matter how well worded this paragraph may be, its usefulness depends upon the reader. It is written to tell the sufferer from dyspepsia, deranged liver, impure blood, constipation, headache, depression, nervousness and other troubles that Dr. R. V. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure him quickly and thoroughly. They work mildly but efficiently. They put blood and bowels right, clear the brain and invigorate the system. Sold by Dealers everywhere.

A New Railroad.

A new ore bank has been started on the farm in Spring township, owned by Mr. Israel Kauffman, of Bellefonte, (Bishop street.) This ore bank is operated by Valentine & Co. They have built a narrow gauge railroad from the Taylor ore bank to this bank, a distance of two-thirds of a mile, which they have built during the past summer especially to haul the ore from this bank to the ore washing machine. They have a small engine and about 40 small trucks or cars on which they put about one ton of ore in each car; and 12 cars are counted to make one train. This engine makes 40 trips per day and hauls 480 tons every 10 hours. The ore, clay and stones are all separated after being brought into the washers.

Mr. George Hockenbury manipulates the throttle of this engine. The company is very fortunate in having such a careful, intelligent, thorough engineer as Mr. Hockenbury has proven himself to be. He acts as engineer, conductor and fireman. One brakeman is also employed on this train, who is a very pleasant and intelligent young man.

This ore is mined, loaded and washed as fast as it can be brought in, providing everything about the machinery works right, and if anything gets out of order all hands are stopped for the time being until everything is again started.

This ore bank of Mr. Kauffman's is proving a boananza to him, as he gets 5 cents a ton or 5 cents for each car that is filled at this bank. They are taking the clay, ore and gravel away to the depth of from 20 to 25 feet. This bank is located at the north-west end of his farm and will be about 15 rods wide from where they are at present working, to the line between Mr. Kauffman's and the Hale property.

This ore bank will be extended into the E. W. Hale property, when the ore runs out in Mr. Kauffman's bank. At the present rate of working of this mine Mr. Kauffman receives as an income of 4 cents per minute for each working day or $24 per day of 10 hours. In and around the ore banks and ore washing machines there are about 40 men employed. The gravel is taken away from the washer and loaded on the cars and then shipped away. Some cars take 30 tong of gravel and it takes 160 wheel barrow loads to fill a car of this size.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle Dyspepsia is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me rest." To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digested food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the digestive organs, but it is likewise an aid to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10 cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

An Aged Lady.

Mrs. Rebecca Jodon, of Spring township is a very aged person. She has nearly completed her 82nd year, yet one who did not know it would think her much younger. She does not look or appear to be so very old as she really is. Mrs. Jodon's maiden name was Rebecca Idding and formerly lived in Union count, Pa. She is the mother of L. E. and Foster Jodon, of Spring township.

A New Saw Mill.

The Bilger brothers will soon put up a steam saw mill east of Axe-Mann on the Curtin farm where they will saw the timber that is standing there. That they will do the work to suit both parties, goes without saying as they are the right men for this business. The Bilger brothers are pleasant men to do business with.

"A kind of old hobgoblin hall
Now somewhat fallen to decay."

An ancient inn is thus described, but the description exactly fits the codition of the body when fallen to decay on account of a torpid liver which corrups the blood, all the horrors of dyspepsia and finally consumption following. The brain becomes the dwelling place of hobgoblins, and despondency, gloom and misery hold possession of the patient.

Fortunately for this class of sufferers perfect relief is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which restores the liver to activity and pure rich blood drives diseases from lung and brain. The incipient consumption, scrofulous sores, cough, hectic fever and debility disappear.

—The Philipsburg Daily Journal is responsible for the following: In July 1890, Jacob M. Smith, a farmer living a few miles from Penfield, set a mink trap on top of a chestnut post to catch an owl that was carrying away his fowls. The next morning the staple was broken off and the trap was gone. On Thanksgiving night this year Mr. Smith set another trap and at 7 o'clock he found in it a large owl. When he killed it he discovered his other trap and chain fast to its left leg, the bird having carried them for over five years The owl measured four and one-half feet from tip to tip of wings.

Lots of Life in them Yet.

Peoples whose forty-fifty birthday is behind them fancy that their power to resist diseases is lessened because a cough sticks to them a few days. They change their ideas when they have tried The Pineola Balsam, for it goes right to the spot and makes the irratated throat well. The resinous substances in the pine and other trees will stop a cough every time if combined as they are in Ely's Pincola Balsam which all wide awake druggists have for sale at 25c.
